That is the Sixth, where William M. Bennett is trying to defeat Samuel S. Koenig.

There is one leadership fight, as indicated by an opposition ticket for county committee members in the Democratic ranks.

It is in the Twenty-second district, where Joseph J. McCormick wants to wrest the leadership from J. J. F. Mulcahy, who was named by Thomas F. McAvoy as his successor last winter.

LEWIS KEEPS BOLO

IN PRIMARY FIGHT

Renews Charge That Hearst and French Traitor Were on Friendly Terms.

Attorney-General Merton E. Lewis renewed his charges yesterday against William Randolph Hearst and Gov. Whitman.

He told the farmers who were much better fitted to understand the problems than the Governor. The Whitman camp contented itself with giving out a list of thirty-five counties where the organization has endorsed the renomination of the Governor.

Managers do not concede more than eight counties as doubtful.

Some days ago Mr. Lewis said he would prove to the satisfaction of every one that Mr. Hearst had sent a letter of introduction of Bolo to Mr. Hearst.

Mr. Hearst, who was in the employ of Mr. Hearst, to interest himself in the Bolo matter.

Mr. Hearst invited Bolo to luncheon with him almost immediately upon his arrival in New York.

A day or two later Bolo, gave a dinner at Sherry's in compliment to Mr. Hearst, at which both Mr. and Mrs. Hearst were present.

Before Bolo's departure Mr. Hearst gave to Bolo a farewell supper, preceded by a theatre party.

"Mr. Hearst will hardly deny these statements. Of course he cannot harmonize them with the statement which he made in October, 1917, in the article in which he attacked me. Mr. Hearst made no reply to my statement of August 2. He probably will not reply to this statement. Doubtless he prefers to allow the matter to be forgotten."

W. W. Cocks believes that figures speak louder than words. This is the list of counties where Bolo had sent a letter of introduction of Bolo to Mr. Hearst.
